

HAMBURG HAS MUCH TO EXPLORE:
THE WAREHOUSE COMPLEX “SPEICHERSTADT”,
THE HARBOUR AND THE RIVER ELBE. SO GRAB THE COLOURED PENCIL AND PAINT OUR HANSEATIC CITY!

The sun is shining! Paint in the picture and what you would like to do on a sunny day.

A barge drives on the canal. The sky is missing, paint what could be there.

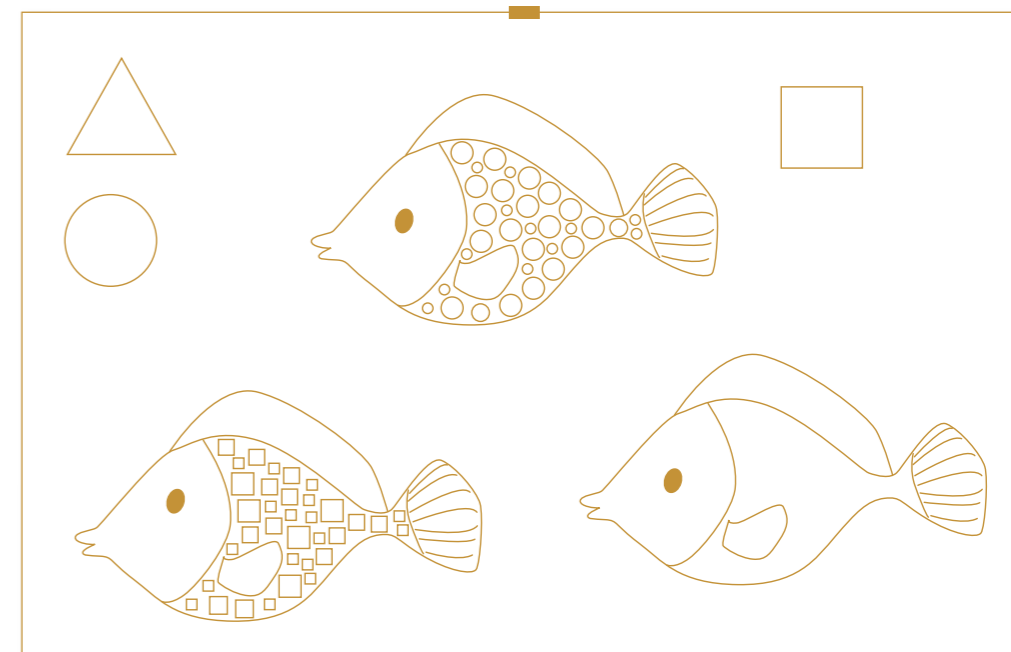

Ahoi, captain!
Which colour should your anchor and wheel have?

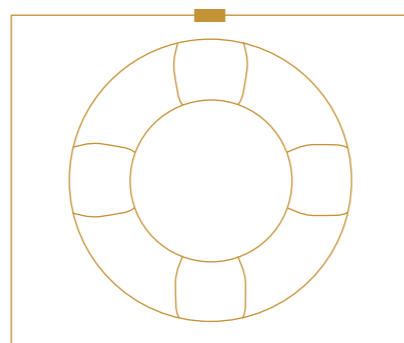

Our head-chef Philip Rebersky doesn't need one of these items in the VLET-Kitchen. Do you know what it could be?

There are many red brick buildings in the warehouse-complex “Speicherstadt”. Could you paint them to the end?

One of these fishes looks a little bit boring. Could you imagine which form his scales might have?

Do you know the colour of a life buoy?

WELCOME IN THE VLET...

... and welcome to Hamburg's old ancient warehouse-complex "Speicherstadt". While you walk to our restaurant you notice the old red bricks warehouses. In these warehouses the Hamburg merchants store spices, coffee, tobacco and tea from all over the world – also here in our restaurant VLET. We modified the storage into a modern restaurant, but some things like the walls and the ceiling are over 200 years old. Just close your eyes and take a deep breath. Do you smell the spices, which were stored here?

Enjoy your meal,
Yours VLET Team
